U.S. 'Moon' to Be Fired in December

Arkansan Seeks 'Doctor' Title

TYRONA (UP) — A 58-year-old Tyrona, Ark., physician will compete in the American Medical Society-sponsored "Family Doctor of the Year" contest at Philadelphia in December.

Dr. L. H. McDaniels became eligible to enter the competition after being elected Arkansas State Family Doctor at the Arkansas Medical Society's annual meeting at Little Rock Sunday. He was representing Craighead and Poinsett Counties.

Says Russia, U. S. Must Talk or Go to War

NEW YORK (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev wants a top-level conference between U. S. and Soviet leaders because he thinks the two countries must either fight or talk things out, the New York Times said today.

Soviet leaders were said to desire a meeting of Khrushchev or Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov, the Soviet defense minister, with President Eisenhower.

Khrushchev indicated that the launching of the Soviet earth satellite last week may bring the two countries closer to high-level talks reported James Reston, chief of the Washington bureau of the Times, who is visiting Moscow.

Reston interviewed Khrushchev, the Soviet Communist party chief Monday. The interview is being released daily in three parts the second of which appeared today.

"Everyone here," Reston wrote, "has the same answer to complaints about United States-Soviet differences in the Middle East or Germany: high-level talks by Marshal Zhukov whose name and picture seem to be more and more prominent, or by Mr. Khrushchev."

Informal diplomats in Moscow believe that after the current U. N. Assembly session the Russians will try to set up a disarmament talk involving Zhukov, Reston reported.

"Mr. Khrushchev said that the two major nations either had to fight things out or talk them out," Reston wrote. "While he said that apparently Washington did not think the time was ripe for serious new conversations on disarmament, he did indicate that the launching of the Soviet earth satellite last week might produce a new approach."

Court Delays Cases About Integration

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — Municipal Judge Harry Robinson, an appointee of Gov. Orval Faubus, has put off until next month cases of persons involved in more than 50 arrests for disturbing the peace and other incidents at integrated Central High School.

Robinson cautioned those persons previously arrested to stay away from the school. Asked the reason for deferring the cases Robinson said "I think it is wise to pass these cases until this thing is all over and I hope it is."

Meantime Federal authorities were still investigating violations during the outbreak. It was known that U. S. Attorney Oscar Cobb had been in conference with FBI agent J. J. Casper of the Little Rock office.

No Danger From Paint on Toys

WASHINGTON (UP) — There is no special danger to children from paint on Japanese-made or other foreign toys, according to U. S. Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney.

Burney issued a statement Tuesday night saying tests by the U. S. Public Health Service and state and city laboratories reveal "no significant difference between domestic and foreign toys in the matter of lead content of paint."

The statement was made in reply to reports that paint used on Japanese toys sold in retail stores in the United States could give children lead poisoning.

The Public Health Service study was made with the aid of a group of consultants "who are experts in lead poisoning."

Yankees Even Up Series With Turley's Hurling

NEW YORK (INS) — The incredible Yankees used a recharged battery and their old standby home run weapon today to defeat the Milwaukee Braves, 3 to 2, and send the breath-taking 1957 World Series into a "sudden death" seventh game.

It was the brilliant four-hit pitching by Bob Turley, a two run homer by Yogi Berra and a game-deciding four bagger by Hank Bauer which saved the seemingly indestructible Bombers from the series burial ground on this highly exciting day.

And, to 31,408 fans at Yankee Stadium who had turned out for this last stand by the bombers, it was an old familiar story.

The Braves hit two mighty home runs — one by Hank Aaron and one by Frank Torre — as they sought the win which would make their beloved city of Milwaukee the baseball capital of the universe.

This was not to be as the Yankees refused to render their bats and sent the classic game to the decisive seventh game for the third straight year.

Turley, the fireballing right-hander who lasted only one and two thirds innings in his only other series start, was given a two-run lead in the Yankee third when Berra homered off Bob Buhl after two were out.

WORLD SERIES (sixth game)
Milwaukee 000 010 100—2 4 0
New York 02 000 10x—3 7 0
Buhl, Johnson (3), McMahon (3) and Rice; Turley and Berra—Johnson.

Home runs — Milwaukee, Torre, Aaron, New York, Berra-Bauer.

Best of 7 series 3-3.

Burglars Damage Crossett School

CROSSETT (UP) — Burglars described as "amateurs" broke into Crossett High School and inflicted an estimated $1,000 damage although only $5 in petty cash was missing.

School Supt. M. H. Russell said the intruders apparently used crowbars to gain entrance to the school safe. Offices of the principal, student counselor and superintendent also were ransacked.

Mrs. Carter, 91, to Be Buried Near Blevins

Mrs. Eliza Ann Carter, aged 91, died Tuesday in a local hospital. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. P. Tate of Delight and Mrs. J. A. Tate of Hot Springs.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at Bell's Chapel near Blevins by the Rev. Doyle W. Wilson. Burial by Herndon-Correll will be in Marlbrook Cemetery.

More Students Absent From Local Schools

Approximately 195 students were absent from Junior and Senior High Schools this morning due to illness, it was announced by Principal Julius Adams. This represents from 20 to 25 per cent of the student body.

There was no report from the other schools in the city but the situation was believed somewhat better in the grade schools.

Principal W. V. Rutherford of Yerger High reported only about 20 student out in the Negro school system, which isn't too unusual. However, most of that number were excused yesterday and today due to illness.

Although the percentage of absentees is exceptionally high at Junior and Senior high school officials mentioned no hint of any plan to close school for a few days. This, naturally, will depend on the spread of the illness which is probably partly flu and bad colds.

The sickness has stricken the football squad as many are not able to be out today. However, Coaches are very hopeful the players will recover in time for Friday night's important game with Crossett.

Benson Gives Warning to Dairy Farmers

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP) — Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson told dairy farmers today they will seriously damage their long-run markets if they insist on "artificially high" prices.

"We cannot build markets by pricing ourselves out of them," Benson said in a speech prepared for delivery to the 34th anniversary meeting of the Dairy Women's League Cooperative Association.

Benson said the dairy outlook is "much brighter in several ways than it was just a few years ago." Supplies have been reduced and "prices for butterfat and milk have gradually improved over the past two years," he said.

But dairy production is likely to continue at high levels, the administration farm chief added, "and with such abundance we should not expect to price products as if they were scarce."

Benson said farmers need protection from the "harmful price effects" which otherwise would result from their exposed economic position. But he said "artificially high" prices "government price supports" would lead to more surplus production and loss of consumer markets.

Some midwestern legislators recently have been proposing for an increase in federal price supports for milk. Benson's speech to the New York dairy group here appeared to outline his objections to higher milk prices.

Delegates Tell of Kiwanis Convention

Highlights of a district Kiwanis convention held in Kansas City recently and attended by delegates from Arkansas and Missouri clubs, were outlined to the Hope Kiwanis club yesterday at its noon luncheon meeting at Hotel Barlow.

Royce Weisenberger, president-elect of the local club, and Mike Kelly, attended the convention and each gave inspirational talks before the local club.

Guests were Bill McClendon of Lewisville, Ed Stuart of Little Rock, and J. R. Mallory of Nashville, Tenn.

Soybean Quarantine Extended to State

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansas, Mississippi and Kentucky will be added to states now under partial quarantine because of the soybean cyst nematode, the Agriculture Department announced yesterday.

Missouri, North Carolina and Tennessee areas already are under quarantine.

Librarians Could Be the Reason

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Louisiana librarian suggested yesterday that the public's lack of book reading could be blamed on the same deficiency in librarians.

Miss Sallie J. Farrell, a field representative of the Louisiana State Library, said "if more books are to be read, we must have persons working in libraries who read books who talk about books and who have a deep and abiding faith in their books' importance."

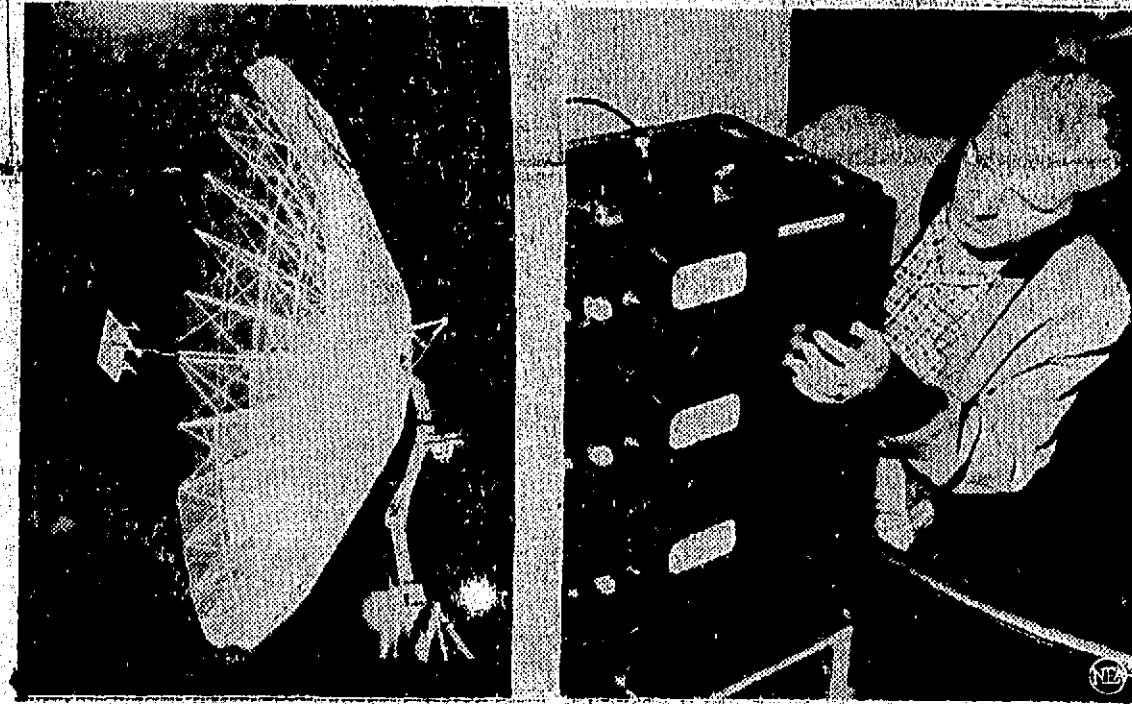

Miss Farrell addressed the concluding session of the Arkansas Library Association here.

Miss Anna May Alston, librarian at Harding College in Searcy, was elected president of the association. She succeeds Miss Lucille Slater of El Dorado.

Withdrawal of Negro Students Only Likely Solution, Says Faubus

EFFIGY BURNED — Students of the University of Toronto, wearing hoods resembling those of the Ku Klux Klan, are shown as they burned an effigy of Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus on the campus of the university in Toronto, Canada. TRYING TO TRACK SATELLITE — Scientists at Stanford Research Institute in Menlo Park, Calif., are attempting to track the Soviet satellite with one of the world's most powerful radar sets. At right technician Joe Wheeler adjusts controls of the 61-foot parabolic antenna. It has a field of only about three degrees, thus making a fairly accurate fix necessary before it can train on the artificial moon and thus accord U. S. scientists their first precise knowledge about the object's speed, altitude and course. — NEA Telephoto.

PTA Told How to Improve Health Plan

Need for additional personnel locally was discussed at length last night at a joint PTA meeting in Hope Junior High auditorium.

Dr. Edgar J. Easley, assistant State Health Officer, told the group that right now, Mrs. Inez Turner, local health nurse, is trying to serve 25,000 persons in Hempstead when actually one nurse is needed for every 5,000 to 6,000 persons.

Also needed is one sanitary officer for every 13,000 to 15,000 persons yet one sanitary officer comes to Hempstead once weekly to try to cover the entire county.

Dr. Easley suggested that a partial relief could come from a greater appropriation from the county. He pointed out that the community itself must take the lead in making application for additional personnel before its quorum court which meets here November 3. All funds appropriated will be matched by state funds, he said.

The PTA members, some 100 were present, took no action. The meet was called to order by Mrs. Ben Owen, president of the PTA Council and the Rev. V. D. Keeley gave the invocation.

Little Rock Man Wins New Auto

NEW YORK (UP) — A Little Rock Ark., man, Gervase W. Blakenship lost out on the $8,000 question on the CBS television program. The $64,000 Question but won a Cadillac anyway.

Blakenship an executive of a neon sign firm, has studied Lincoln most of his life and has a library of more than 500 volumes concerning the 16th president.

U. S. Offer Not Public in Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — A U. S. announcement it is willing to negotiate with Russian within the United Nations on missiles and "earth" satellites was not made public in Moscow today.

But Western quarters predicted that when the Kremlin does decide to make it public it will do so from its "own position of strength," as one source said.

Again Cites Need for Time to Make a Change

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus said today he sees no solution in the Little Rock integration crisis save the complete withdrawal of the nine Negro students attending Central High School.

Faubus was asked at a news conference to explain the "cooling off" period he has said is needed in the integration deadlock.

He replied: "We need a chance for tension to be allowed, time for litigation and time for the people to accept peacefully what is being crumpled down their throat."

Withdrawal of six Negro girls and boys who have been attending integrated classes at Central High under protection of federal troops ordered here by President Eisenhower.

"It's possible," the governor replied, "that the governor will be pressed on this point as to whether any solution could be reached while the Negroes are in Central High."

Faubus said: "I don't think it is possible at this time with the Negroes in the school."

Faubus said it is within the power of a number of people including the courts and the Little Rock School Board to initiate some break in the deadlock but that he has no suggestions currently under consideration.

Faubus said he was not "closing the door to the possibility of a compromise because I don't want to appear adamant or arbitrary."

But again he said he had no such move currently under consideration.

In Washington Eisenhower told a news conference he certainly is very hopeful the time may be drawing near when federal troops can be withdrawn from Little Rock. But he offered no specific information or elaboration.

Faubus told the news conference which followed on the heels of President Eisenhower's own weekly meeting with reporters that he is of course hopeful federal troops will leave Little Rock because "they never should have been sent in the first place."

But he lashed out again at both the administration and Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, commander of the Arkansas Military District, Continued on Page Two

Cheerleaders Active in School Affairs

This is a story about the Hope High School Cheerleaders. The idea for this story came about the other day when this reporter ambled into the High School auditorium and saw the eight young ladies preparing the stage for the pep rally at activity period.

These eight girls, Sue Houston, Caroline Cox, Judy Kay Wright, Bevelyn Ball, Linda Rogers, Jan Robinson, Genevieve Cash and Dorothy Ball, were elected to be cheerleaders by the student body last spring before school was out.

While talking to the girls and their sponsors, Ann Wilson and Sarah Elter, the idea began to form, and when Judy Kay popped out with, "Why don't you write a story about the cheerleaders," that settled it. I asked the girls to list some facts about themselves and what a cheerleader does and this is their story.

They have 49 yells, a pep meeting every Friday morning at activity period, practice every afternoon for a couple of hours and Friday morning before school takes up for about an hour. During the week, signs are made so that Friday the school is decorated with yells, slogans and words of encouragement.

This year, a pep squad consisting of 3 students from each home room was selected, forming a nucleus of the cheering section. This group numbers about 40, wears special costumes of red and white to the games, are required to attend all home games and to know all the yells. The pep squad sits on masses in a reserved section of the student section.

Each week, different cheerleaders meet with the pep squad and teach them new yells, as well as improve on the old ones. After school on Friday, before the home game that night, the cheerleaders decorate the goal posts and each summer, at least two of them go to a special cheerleading camp.

Now I'd like to tell you something about each of the girls, and their answer to my question, "Why did you want to be a cheerleader?"

Sydney Sue Houston, age 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Houston, and a senior, has been a cheerleader for three years. She is a member of the Future Nurse History and English Clubs, Ground Observer Corps, reporter, scrapbook keeper, recreation committee and treasurer of the Hope Youth Center.

"To follow in the steps of Big Sister, is one reason I wanted to be a cheerleader, for when she was one and had the group over at our house for practice, I thought what fun it must be and how nice it was to be a part of the many people leading the school spirit," Big Sister referred to by Sue, is Ann Houston, a cheerleader for the Bobcats in 1951 and '52.

Caroline Cox, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Cox, is also a senior and has been a cheerleader for four years in school, in the 8th and 9th grades and again in the 11th and 12th grades. Caroline is a member of the FTA, History, English, Music Makers and Library Clubs, Rainbow Girls, Maids of Note and Parliamentarian of the Quill and Scroll.

"I've always wanted to be a cheerleader ever since I was in a grade school yelling for the Brookwood team. If I were a boy, I wouldn't miss playing football, but since I could never do that, cheerleading is the closest thing to the athletic events of our school."

Judy Kay Wright, 15, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Wright, is in the 10th grade and has been a cheerleader for three years. Judy is treasurer of the Future Nurses and a member of the Rainbow Girls.

"Well, I decided in Junior High that since I couldn't play football, I'd try for the next best. Truly, with Mrs. A. A. Albritton as chairman.

Mrs. C. P. Tolleson, program chairman for the afternoon introduced Mr. J. C. Youmans of Emmet who gave an interesting and informative discussion on Iris and Hesperocallis Lillies culture and care.

In the Line Mass Arrangement in Compote contest, first place was awarded to Mrs. A. A. Halbert. Members of the club brought bulbs to be given to the Junior Garden Club at Oglesby School.

The hostesses served a dessert plate and coffee to 12 members at the close of the meeting.

Coming and Going

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goodwin Jr. and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Goodwin and Sandra and Mrs. A. Fincher visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gentry and family of Dallas last week end and attended the Texas State Fair.

SOLAR HOUSE—Heat from the sun for an operating cost of about $50 annually has been achieved in the experimental house sketched above, a project of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Located in Lexington, Mass., heat collector beneath glass roof warms water of a closed system to about 180 degrees F. Water gives off heat through a heat exchanger, and can retain its warmth in storage for about three days. Heat exchanger operates to cool house in summer. Sketch is from Popular Mechanics magazine.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS—That "mirror" is just a mirage, as Charlotte Smith of Manhattan, Kan., faces not her reflection, but her twin sister, Charlotte. The twin beauties were chosen from among 42 sets of twins in the Rocky Mountain area to reign as "twin queens" at the Rocky Mountain Oil Show at Casper, Wyo.

DOROTHY DIX

Ma Feels No Girl Is Good Enough For Son

Now it has become one of the most important things in my life.

Bevelyn Ball, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ball, is a senior in Hope High, and this is her first year as a cheerleader. Bevelyn is a member of the FTA, History, English, Library, Future Nurses and Secretarial Clubs and the Future Homemakers of America.

"I have always loved football. Leading the students in yells at the pep rally and football games is so much fun. Cheerleading is very important in helping to promote school spirit. I am so happy that I am a cheerleader for the Hope Bobcats."

Linda Rogers, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Rogers, is in the 10th grade and has been a cheerleader in the Junior High and now in Senior High. Linda is a member of the Future Nurses Club, and said, "I've loved football since I was old enough to know what it was all about. Being a cheerleader enables me to build up everyone else's spirit as well as an outlet for my own and I just love every minute of it."

Jan Robinson, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, is a senior and has been a cheerleader in Junior High and now in Senior High. Jan is a member of the FTA, Library Club, English and History Clubs, Quill and Scroll on the girls basketball team, secretary of the student council and in the National Honor Society.

"I wanted to be a cheerleader because I wanted to be a part of the school and its athletic events."

Genevieve Cash, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cash, is a Junior in Hope High and is an Alternate cheerleader for the first time. Genevieve is in the History and Library Clubs and a member of the pep squad.

"I wanted to be a cheerleader because I like to yell. I love sports of all kinds."

Dorothy Ball, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ball, is in the 10th grade and is also an Alternate cheerleader for the first time. Dorothy is a member of the Future Nurses, Spanish Club and pep squad.

"Because I love to yell, and I am close to the athletic department and its activities, that's why I wanted to be a cheerleader."

There you have it, a partial picture of eight wonderful girls doing their part to help the Bobcats on to victory during the game and displaying school spirit and good sportsmanship wherever they are. True, not every student can be a cheerleader, but the example these eight girls set can be followed with pride.

Durante Will Do a Show With Lahr

BY CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Durante was talking about New York while eating a breakfast of oatmeal and milk at 1 p.m.

"When I get back here," he said, "I can't go to bed. An' then, because I can't go to bed I can't get up. An' when I do get up, what do I do? Maybe I go over to the East Side where I grew up an' try to find some old friends. But anymore I get lost over there. All I can find is a new housing developments."

He spooned some oatmeal and looked up.

"But," he said with emotion, "there's no place like New York. I love that rustle and bustle, that rush. You walk faster in New York, ain't I don't know where."

Durante is back in his home town after an absence of several months to appear next Sunday on an anniversary show over NBC-TV at 9 p.m. EDT, a special 90-minute variety program. With Bert Lahr he will do a new song "Or maybe it's such an old song that it's now a new song," entitled "My Girls Don't Want My Money. All They Want Is Me."

Because Durante has worked with virtually everybody in show

Daisy, she excused herself for a few minutes, which turned into an hour. I went looking for her and found her cozily seated at a table with three fellows. She was having the time of her life. I waited for her to return to the spot where she had left me. When she showed up, she said I wasn't justified in being angry; she had done nothing wrong."

S. W. Dear S. W.: Daisy has much to learn of manners, tact and the gentle art of getting along with people. As a parting gift, why not buy her a book? I suggest "Your Best Foot Forward," by Dorothy C. Strutton and Helen B. Schlemmer. Published by McGraw-Hill, it costs $3.50.

UA Professors to Plot Moon Course

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Two University of Arkansas professors have arranged a 24-hour "monitoring" system in an effort to plot the exact orbit of the Russian satellite which now is circling the earth.

Dr. Walter Cannon, professor of electrical engineering, and Dr. Paul Starrin, chairman of the Physics Department said yesterday they had signals from the satellite three times Saturday night and yesterday morning.

Special antennas, cut to proper size for the monitoring frequency, will be used with communication receivers in order to get clearer signals from the miniature satellite, Cannon said.

"By the end of this week we hope to be able to tell where the earth satellite is passing with respect to us," Cannon said. "From that data the orbit can be figured."

A few amateur radio operators in Arkansas have reported hearing the beep-beep signals from the swift-moving moon.

fans should take hope.

It's probable, he says, that he'll return in January with the same kind of show that enjoyed five years on the home screen.
